THE issue as to the adoption of the Constintion submitted by our late Convention, is not whether we like it and approve all its risions, but whether we prefer it to the id, with all the Endical amendments to it, ust as it exists now. The voters are to vote as they may prefer. We go for the new, whom a large part are now disfranchised by the old. The case is a plain one. The Issue is one of great importance. The Radical vote will be against the new Constitution.
